2. How are the exams conducted?

The examinations are conducted on a particular date and time, and invigilators will be monitoring your exam. The attempt will be automatically submitted once the exam time is over.

Before you attempt any exam make sure you get the correct Zoom exam room link from the college. Links would be sent to you through an SMS and email beforehand. To avoid problems, you should login to the room 15-20 minutes earlier than the given time and ask the staff any questions you have or inform them of any problems you are facing. You are required to have your webcam on and broadcasting throughout the exam. If you get disconnected, you will have to redo the exam.

Our staff will be continuously monitoring webcams and your activity will be logged throughout the exam. If they see any unsuitable behavior, they will flag you and after reviewing you may be disqualified from the exam. Each exam session is recorded for future viewing. You are not allowed to copy and paste, look at books and other resources or talk to anyone nearby while you take the exam. Make sure the room you sit in has bright light and it does not have any other distractions. Taking a phone call/replying to texts and other similar behavior is deemed as unfit during the exam. You must always be facing the screen and our staff should be able to see you clearly.

After logging into the meeting and you start broadcasting your webcam, our staff will announce when the exam is ready. You can start the exam by minimizing Zoom and starting Safe Exam Browser. It will ask you to log in to your Student Portal and you can navigate to your course and start the exam. You can submit the exam before the time ends, but if you fail to submit it before the time ends your attempt will be automatically submitted. Remember, for any reason if your webcam goes offline or if it faces any problem, you maybe disqualified. Please make sure you have a stable internet before the exam starts.

Once you finish submitting the exam, you can close the browser and let the invigilator know that you have finished submitting the exam by typing your name in the chat. You can leave the Zoom meeting afterward.
